PART VI · PRACTICAL FRAMEWORKS

A Premium Workbook for Self-Assessment, Identity Mapping & Action Planning

Essence of this part
Virtues are the daily mechanics of a life Above Human. This final workbook turns the manifesto into practice: virtues, verification routines, and a personal declaration.

Self-Assessment

Rate each statement honestly on a scale of 1 (rarely true) to 5 (consistently true). Your score is not a verdict—it is a starting point.

I practice at least three virtues with deliberate frequency.	1	2	3	4	5
I run a weekly verification of my decisions and direction.	1	2	3	4	5
I have a written manifesto I revisit at least monthly.	1	2	3	4	5
I notice and correct drift before it becomes identity.	1	2	3	4	5
I am living—imperfectly but visibly—the standard I claim.	1	2	3	4	5

Total score (sum of all rows):

What does this score tell you about where to focus first?

Identity Mapping

Identity is constructed sentence by sentence. Sit with each prompt. Write what is true—not what is impressive.

Which virtue is currently your strongest? Which is most neglected?

What does your weekly verification ritual look like (or what would it look like)?

Write the first three lines of your personal manifesto.

Action Planning

A standard that is not enacted is not yours. Convert insight into commitment. Be specific—name dates, behaviors, and witnesses.

The virtue I will deliberately strengthen this month:

The day and time of my weekly verification:

My personal manifesto sentence (one line, present tense):

> Verification Check
> Re-read your action commitments aloud. If even one feels performative, revise it until it feels both possible and slightly uncomfortable. That is the zone of real growth.

A Note Before You Close This Workbook

> You will not live this entire standard perfectly. Neither will I. No one does. But every day you return to alignment—every time you choose clarity over impulse, truth over comfort, discipline over drift—you strengthen your character.
